Grand Jury Indicts Judge Twice

Randall County Judge Roy Joe Stevens was named in two indictments returned last week by the Potter County Grand Jury. He and others named in the indictments were arrested and released on bond. Details of the two indictments, returned on separate days, are:

Bribery Conspiracy

Judge Stevens and four other Amarillo men were indicted on Wednesday night in a three-count true bill charging conspiracy to commit bribery. Those charged in addition to the judge were:

Joe Brock, Judge Stevens' associate in the practice of law from offices at 110 E. 5th in Amarillo. Harold E. Erlandson, Amarillo bail bondsmen who has handled bonds for a number of men represented by Stevens and Brock.

Ray Tucker, owner of three Amarillo bars.

Edwin Dale West, manager of Tucker's bars. West had previously been indicted as a principal in the bribery case, and was not required to report Wednesday night. West is now scheduled to stand trial both for alleged conspiracy and for the alleged attempt to bribe a venireman for a petit jury, according to Potter County District Attorney Wayne Bagley.

Judge Stevens was charged with the conspiracy on Thanksgiving night. He was arrested late that night, released until the next morning, then arraigned and released on bond.

The indictment charges: In the first count, that the five men conspired together to offer a bribe to a special venireman; in the second count, that the five men conspired to offer a bribe to Donald E. Heard of Amarillo, who was the 24th man on the special venire list; and in the third count, that the five men conspired to offer a bribe to a juror "whose name to the grand jurors is unknown."

In a statement given after the indictments were returned Wednesday, Potter County District Attorney Wayne Bagley said:

"Our staff, with the help of four state investigators assigned by Col. Homer Garrison, and working under the direction of the grand jury, worked many long hard hours to complete the investigation."

"As it progressed, we found that what first seemed to be an involved attempt to bribe a juror was more involved than any of us had imagined."

"Initially, the investigation began after a witness who had been made to leave town came forward with information that resulted in the charge (of bribery) being filed against Judge Stevens."

Murder Conspiracy

On Thursday night, Judge Stevens and three other Amarillo men were indicted for an alleged conspiracy to murder a state investigator, Edgar Brannon. The indictment grew out of the grand jury's investigation of the alleged bribery conspiracy.

Charged with the judge were: George S. McCarthy, well-known Amarillo attorney who is representing Judge Stevens on the bribery indictment.

William Gerald Miller, an Amarillo Air Force Base airman and part-time employee of Judge Stevens in his Amarillo law office.

Harold E. Erlandson, who was also indicted for the bribery conspiracy.

Dist. Atty Bagley told this story of the incidents which led to the indictment on Thursday:

"On Sunday, he (Miller) called me at my home and said something real important had come up. It was necessary he see and talk to me and state investigator Edgar Brannon at 9 p. m."

"It was necessary that none of us contact him, he said."

"He said he'd contact Ed Brannon at the Highway Patrol office at 9 that night, which he did."

"He said Roy Joe had him down there (at his office) talking to him that day and that there was some important stuff in Roy Joe's office."

"Brannon and I had learned at 7 that night that Harold Erlandson and George McCarthy had contacted the sheriff's office and police department and told them that Ed Brannon and the district attorney were going to go into Roy Joe Stevens' office."

"It was later learned that at 7 o'clock that night they hired two night watchmen to watch that office from 8 o'clock that night to 6 the next morning."

"He (Miller) came out and brought a key and asked about taking a lie detector test on Tuesday of this week. We finally agreed on Tuesday."

"Miller had made the boast he'd do everything he could to help the state and grand jury in the investigation."

"The key was to Roy Joe Stevens' office. He (Miller) said there was a big deal going on there. He said it might help us."

"He laid the key first on the desk. It was a key on a ring. He showed me the door key. It had a plastic label with Miller's home address on it. I took it off the key ring. The key was initialed then and went to a state agent."

"We had absolutely no intention of going in that office. We had no business going in there. There was nothing there we wanted. We wanted to find out how far the scheme had gone."

"Bagley said Miller seemed 'overzealous' to get the key into the state's hands, and authorities suspected a trap. He said Erlandson had contacted Chief of Police Wiley Alexander Sunday afternoon to inform him that Judge Stevens' Amarillo office was to be broken into that night. He said McCarthy had contacted Sheriff Paul Gaither with the same information.)

Bagley continued the story of the train of events by saying one of the state agents went to 5th Avenue in Amarillo about midnight to check on anyone watching the area. He watched a car across the street until 2 a. m. A check of the license on the car showed it belonged to a member of an Amarillo burglary-protection firm.

Bagley said the watchmen were contacted about 2 or 2:30 and identified. One was armed with a pistol and the other with shotgun. The watchmen said they were employed by Erlandson to watch Judge Stevens' and Brock's office.

Officers talked to the two watchmen for about 20 minutes and Judge Stevens, Erlandson and McCarthy arrived "fully dressed," Bagley said. He said they arrived at the same time in separate cars.

"George (McCarthy) asked me where the key was," Bagley said. "I asked, 'What key?'"

"The key to Roy Joe's office." "I told him I received it about 9 p. m., and that it was put in an envelope and placed in the custody of an agent of the state."

Rumors, Stories, Bric-a-Brac

(The printing of rumors and unsubstantiated stories as facts is not considered completely safe nor ethical in newspaper circles. However, at certain times, mention of those items, labeled clearly, is helpful in rounding out a complex news story. Here are several stories heard in Amarillo last weekend, few of which were substantiated. The Editor)

When the first stories of the charging of Judge Roy Joe Stevens with bribery were published in November, there was mention of a secret witness who was hiding out for fear of his life.

It appears that the man approached Thomas H. Thompson, editor of the Amarillo Globe-Times with his story. The man was given sanctuary in Pampa, along with his family, apparently at the expense of the Amarillo newspapers.

The man later returned to Amarillo and took a job in a store that is just around the corner from the law offices of Stevens and Joe Brock. Rather odd for a man who is fearful for his life.

The November term Potter County Grand Jury, the one which has returned the indictments involving Judge Stevens, apparently refused to use the Potter County District Attorney, Wayne Bagley, and his staff for a period of time. Instead, they used Potter County Attorney Lon Moser.

A grand jury has that right, and can engage an outside attorney if it so desires. However, that is not standard practice. When the two indictments involving Stevens were returned, the grand jury was using the district attorney during its deliberations.

There is another story going the rounds in Amarillo that Bagley went to Lubbock and underwent a lie detector examination on the Department of Public Safety lie detector there. The story holds that it was done at the request of the grand jury. The story also holds that Bagley was cleared of any misunderstandings during the examination.

Board Approves School Planning

A final preliminary floor plan of the new Canyon high school was approved by the school board Tuesday night.

The architects will start the working drawings this week. William C. Townes said it would take three to four months to complete the working drawings.

In other action, the board extended contracts of Supt. Joe Gibson and tax assessor Lee Foster. The two have three-year contracts and the board granted a one-year extension.

Salaries of the two remained the same, $8,688 for Gibson and $6,000 for Foster.

Foster reported to the board that as of Tuesday evening, tax collections for 1958 are 87.9 per cent completed. A total of $244,449.36 has been collected. At this time last year, the collections were 82 per cent complete.

Dance Will Benefit March of Dimes

The Canyon VFW Post 5681 are sponsoring a dance at 8:30 p. m. Saturday at the VFW clubhouse. Proceeds will be given to the March of Dimes.

Music will be furnished by the Melody Six.

The public is invited. Admission is $1 a person.

Next Wednesday the cafes and coffee shops in Canyon will have "Coffee Day" for the March of Dimes. All proceeds above normal operating expenses will be contributed to the drive. Everyone is urged to drink coffee for the drive.

Sings Here Next Week

BEVERLY BOWER

Second Artist in Concert Series Is Blonde Vivacious Soprano

A tall, vivacious, blonde soprano will be the second artist of the Canyon Community Concert Association series.

Beverly Bower, one of the favorite singing-actresses of the New York City Opera, will sing here at 8:15 p. m. Jan. 28 in the Administration Building auditorium.

Miss Bower made her debut with the New York troupe in the spring of 1956 and has appeared since with the company in New York and on tour. This season she'll also be featured with the Fort Worth Opera Company.

She has been much in demand for both operas and concert appearances ever since her first public performance. Formerly a regular star of the Philadelphia Civic Opera Company, she also has made guest appearances with the American Opera Company and the Milwaukee Opera Company.

But there's another facet to Miss Bower's career. Since she's quite nice looking, she's been popular with television. She already established herself as a favorite on radio: for three years "Beverly Bower with Concert Orchestra" was a popular feature seven nights a week on NBC's Philadelphia station, and she filled long-term engagements for other network facilities.

Then she sang on the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scout TV Show and won a week's engagement on CBS-TV. Other important television appearances have been with Dave Garroway and Wally Cox.

A protegee of the famous Metropolitan Opera star, Helen Jepson, Miss Bower has been training her voice almost since she was old enough to talk. After early private studies in Olean, N. Y., where she was born, she continued with outstanding teachers in Philadelphia, where her family moved when she was 16.

She also has been a summer scholarship pupil at Chautauqua.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Riley

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Ellen Riley, 30, who died last Wednesday at her trailer home, were conducted Friday in Warren-LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

The Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery.

Mrs. Riley was stricken at her mobile home at 22nd St. and Fourth Avenue, and her husband, Thomas C. Riley, called a doctor. Mrs. Riley died a few minutes after an ambulance had arrived to take her to the hospital.

Mrs. Riley was born Aug. 4, 1928, at Eden, Texas, and she and her husband moved to Canyon three years ago.

Besides the husband, survivors include two daughters, Tomma Sheryl, 10, and Pamela Susan, 7, and a son, Thomas C. Jr., 5, and two sisters, Mrs. H. E. Riley of Canyon and Mrs. B. R. Duckworth of Eden.

Hiah School Has Split Cage Record

Canyon High School has a 1-1 or a 2-0 District 1-AA record, according to which way you look at it.

On the distaff side, the Eaglettes have been beaten twice in district play. The Eaglettes were defeated 58-47 by Tulia Friday night and lost to Dimmitt Tuesday night by a score of 73-48.

The Eagles defeated Tulia 58-55 Friday night, but lost to Dimmitt Tuesday night by 65-48.

Marilyn Winn leads the Eaglettes in scoring. She made 20 points against Tulia. (Patricia Salmon made 19), and 23 points against Dimmitt.

Eddie Boydston led Eagle scoring against Tulia with 20 points.

Both the boys and girls teams play here again Friday night, meeting teams from Dalhart. Next Tuesday they play Friona at Friona.

WT Registration Set Next Week

Registration for the spring semester at West Texas State College will be held in the Student Union Building and Cafeteria Tuesday and Wednesday, according to registrar Frank Morgan.

Freshmen and sophomores will register Tuesday and upper classmen and graduates Wednesday, each group following the same alphabetical name schedule. Last names starting with the letter "M" will enroll first, starting at 8 a. m., each day and the "A's" will pick it up in the afternoon session at 1 o'clock.

Registration will begin in the Student Union Building at the west door to the large game room but all students first must pick up their photostats at the registrar's office.

For the past several years, registration has been held in the library. It is being scheduled for the cafeteria and student union building to take care of increased enrollment.

Dwyer Services Held in McLean

Funeral services for John William Dwyer, father of Ed Dwyer of Canyon, were held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday in the McLean Church of Christ.

Mr. Dwyer, a Gray County commissioner, was found dead about 2 p. m. Friday in a pasture northwest of McLean. Justice of the Peace Cliff Day returned a verdict of death by self-inflicted wounds.

David Fultz, minister, officiated at the services, and was assisted by Harold McCollum of Tulia. Burial was in Hillcrest Cemetery under the direction of Richerson-Lamb Funeral Home.

A native of Greeley, Neb., Mr. Dwyer moved to McLean from Greeley in 1906. A member of the McLean Church of Christ, he was elected commissioner of Precinct 4 last year and took his oath of office in January.

Other survivors include his wife, four other sons, John, of Groom, Carl of McLean, Archie and Joe, both students at Texas Tech; three brothers, Mick Dwyer of Berkeley, Calif., Phil Dwyer of Lincoln, Mo., and Arthur Dwyer of McLean; a sister, Mrs. Katherine Hetner of Huntsville and eight grandchildren.

What's Your Inference?

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has published a report of 1958 population estimates for the 132 counties in the region, and compared them with the census reports from 1900 through 1950. The '58 estimates are from the Texas Employment Commission.

The overall report shows a 22.7 increase in population for the area from 1940 to 1950, and a further increase of 30 per cent since then. The total population of the region is guessed to be 3,076,041 now.

Now, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce covers a good deal of Texas that many of us would not consider West Texas. Places like Fort Worth and Waco are in the WTCC, so you can see that the three million people in West Texas don't really all live in West Texas.

But there's a significant point to be found in the listing of counties and populations.

We've been living in an area that is growing in population. We read all the time that the nation's population is growing. And it becomes easy to figure that every place is growing right along.

The WTCC report shows that 56 of the 132 counties have lost population since 1950. Mind you, the 1958 figures are estimates, and estimates are notorious for being higher than actual count.

Go down the list. Here's one. Armstrong County. 1950 census—2,215; 1958 estimate—1,950. Another: Childress, 12,123 in 1950 and 10,925 in 1958.

Another: Collingsworth with 9,139 in 1950 and 8,500 in 1958. Others: Dallam, Donley, Hall, Lipscomb, Motley, Oldham, Wheeler. And plenty of counties that are not in this immediate area.

Check on them and read about the counties in the Texas Almanac, and you will find one point in common. Those which are losing population are the counties which are dependent on an agricultural economy without irrigation and have no large cities in them. The agriculture is cattle raising, grain or cotton or all three. But there's no industry, and no centers of population.

One can draw a number of inferences

Thanks

We have here a clipping someone brought, which apparently came from a newspaper in Seminole, Okla. The clipping is of a column by Milt Phillips, telling of an automobile trip on Highway 66 in this direction, then a turn off on Highway 87 to Seminole, Texas, and on to Carlsbad, N. M.

A quote, "Canyon, Texas, was the most colorful, and the cleanest, little city we saw while driving through West Texas." (Our rebuttal: The rest of the towns in West Texas must be filthy.)

Further, the column reads, "The West Texas Tech School located there has a lot of new buildings and is much larger than we had any idea it was. We didn't see the home of the Red Raiders in Lubbock, but if it is larger, West Texas has two very nice educational plants out in that windswept country."

What Our Neighbors Say...

Scissor Snippings

Harold Hudson in the Ochiltree County Herald: We have never objected to watching women's knees, and in the world of fashion, the hemlines go up and down so that you know if you are patient for a year or so, the low hemlines will be back up over the kneecap. Unfortunately, however, with the higher hemline, up goes the bodice. We had always hoped someday to see Adrian or one of the other fashion designers reach the ultimate—a dress where hemline and neckline meet. This would indeed be something!

Ben Ezzel in the Canadian Record: One of our small fry, interrupted in the middle of the customary game of "cowboys" the other day, greeted us with the delighted cry, "Hi, I'm Flapjack. I'm a gambler."

This was not, incidentally, the same one who adopted the immortal "Sheriff of Cold Cheese" as his monicker a year or so ago... but we think "Flapjack, the gambler" is certainly a fitting companion for the Sheriff.

Cecil O. Waggoner in the Claude News: Read recently where delinquency in school may indicate a child's future is tied up with a police record. The potential delinquent, supposedly, is indicated by very low grades, truancy and hatred of schools.

Usually, on reaching adulthood, we elect these types to school boards, political office, etc. Their actions were considered normal in former years. Now we approach a new era, the normal is abnormal and the abnormal denotes maturity.

Will wonders never cease.

Ernest Joiner in the Ralls Banner: Sure, I know the world has enough brains to put gismos in orbit around this and other planets, but the combined intelligence of all the peoples of all the ages hasn't been sufficient to invent colored table salt so you can tell how much you're sprinkling on your eggs.

A headline on a final exam story in The Prairie: I Don't Care What Your Name Is, Einstein, You Can't Pass My Course.

Dolph Moten in the State Line Tribune: Grain businesses, we've noticed, are good places to find bits of wisdom tacked around the walls. Here are a couple of for instances we picked up at Henderson Grain and Seed Co., Inc.

"It is nice to know that when you help someone else up a hill you're a little nearer the top yourself."

"Once we roared like Lions for Liberty, now we bleat like Sheep for Security."

It seems that a few of our stockholders make things happen, others just watch things happen and a majority have no idea what has happened.

from the exodus from agricultural counties. There's a decrease in the number of farm families. It is not profitable to farm in areas where mass-production methods cannot be used. Larger farms employ fewer people. Think of your own reasons.

Look further in the report for some of the nearby counties which have underground irrigation. Deaf Smith: 9,111 to 16,000. Hale: 28,211 to 93,081. Castro: 5,417 to 8,000. Floyd: 10,535 to 12,300. Parmer: 5,787 to 10,500. Swisher: 8,249 to 9,990.

And look at those that include centers of population. El Paso: 194,968 to 308,855. Lubbock: 101,048 to 171,650. McLennan: 130,194 to 151,300. Midland: 25,758 to 58,040. Potter and Randall: 87,140 to 157,500. (Randall County, incidentally, had 13,774 in 1950 and has an estimate of 26,850 now. Most of the growth is in Amarillo.) Tarrant: 361,253 to 534,900. Wichita: 98,493 to 131,000.

There's one inference that really stands out to us. If you like living in small towns, and would like to continue living in one, you've got to get busy and run afoul of your desires. You've got to find some way to make your town grow, or soon it will not be able to support you and your friends.

It appears that it is no longer possible for a one or two-crop non-irrigated economy to support many extra people. There must be another channel for outside money to come in, or the outgoing channels will take away the gravy and some of the meat.

Or maybe the inference is that we should all get ready to become city folks and like it.

Year's Schedule

Right now it's hard to predict what elections might be held during the coming year. We know of two that will come off, the election for three school board members in early April and an election to change Canyon's form of government.

The city election hasn't been scheduled yet, but when it comes, the ballot will include spaces for electing two additional city commissioners.

We haven't heard of any bond elections that any governmental group is figuring on. We don't suppose that anyone will be foolish enough to scare up a wet-dry election.

There's always the possibility of a state constitutional amendment for next fall, since the legislature is meeting and sometimes they put the wrong date on their resolutions.

So far as we know now, there will be only two elections this year. You'll have to pay your poll tax before you can vote in either of them. That will make your votes cost 87½ cents each, and that's cheap enough.

The deadline for paying poll taxes is Jan. 31. The receipts can be obtained at the tax office in the courthouse or in the tax office branch in Amarillo. Don't let the deadline pass without some action on your part.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS By BOYCE HOUSE

Austin is the crossroads of the State — and the Stephen F. Austin is the center of Austin. There, recently I sat and watched the passing parade of personalities — Senator Parkhouse of Dallas, Senator Hazelwood of Amarillo, Senator Aikin of Paris, Rep. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, Senator Kazen of Laredo and Senator Reagan of Corpus Christi.

Then there were the venerable Judge Ocie Speer, whose volumes are authoritative; Bailey Jones, who batted in the cleanup position on the Brady baseball team in 1921, smokes a pipe and always has a story — and will also listen to yours; Richard Morehead of the Dallas News; Harry Benge Crozier, who is rather close to being the dean of Capitol newspapermen; H. K. Jackson of Gatesville, past grand master of the Masonic Lodge of Texas; Charles Simon, former ace of the Associated Press, now executive vice president of the Texas

Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association; and J. E. Turner, whom I first met in 1938 when he was a Travis County vocational agriculture teacher and is now dean at A. & I. College in Kingsville — his hair, powdered with gray in the years since we last met, giving him a distinguished appearance.

From one, I learned who had given the "tip" which provided a candidate for attorney general, a good many years ago, with the issue that he used to defeat his runoff opponent. With another, there was reminiscence about the late Lon Boynton, the lovable editor of the Lamar County Echo. Still another — at mention of a man, no longer living, who was a national figure — told of how this wealthy individual visited a neighboring office in the Littlefield Building each morning in order to read the Dallas News, thereby saving a nickel.

Moving in and out of the lobby were young men, on hand for the national convention of a college fraternity; and girls in groups of threes and fours, wearing white, here for an examination — perhaps as beauticians or nurses. (You can tell I'm not young or I would have found out more about them.)

And Justice Woodley of the Court of Criminal Appeals; State's Attorney Douglas of that tribunal and Judge Belcher, commissioner, passed through the lobby, bound for luncheon in the coffee shop.

Then there were many others, some ambling, some hurrying by looking very important, as no doubt they were.

There's nothing like a seat in the Stephen F. Austin lobby.

Five unsuccessful drilling attempts were made at Spindletop before a gusher was hit in January, 1901.

Texas has been the leading mineral-producing state since 1935.

Dear Editor,

Two score and seven years ago We started out to raise more dough

By way of income tax, you know. And now we have so well succeeded,

Got more than we then thought we needed.

Though some may have so basely cheated.

But in this age, 'tis not enough. It seems the more we huff and puff

The less we have, it's really rough.

The more we hock our body and soul

The budget moves from balanced goal.

They pour it down the same rathole.

But then there's nothing we can do,

'Cept tighten belts and see it through.

There is no hope for me and you,

For death and taxes are sure as fate.

Choose which you want ere 'tis too late.

We're headed for the pearly gate

Where we will find a full surcease.

On life we'll get a brand new lease

And pass our days in taxless peace.

The "Life of Riley" we will live

With no one there to tell us "Give."

Farmer Schaeffer

Happy

Base tax, Surtax.

Thumb tacks, carpet tacks.

All stick sprightly,

Daily and nightly.

Texas' 56th Legislature soars off the launching pad.

Predictions are that it'll be orbiting around the Capitol for many months to come—certainly long enough to put to good use the air conditioners newly installed in the Legislative chambers.

Many have suggested the 56th will have to have one or more special sessions before it can solve all its pressing problems. Certainly before they can leave, the lawmakers will have to perform the thankless task of levying many more millions in state taxes.

Additionally, they'll be beset on all sides for new spending programs which would call for even more taxes.

After several months of this, outer space may look invitingly calm compared to the Texas Capitol.

Thin Kitty

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert's official revenue estimate for 1960-1961 is more of a storm warning than a forecast.

Calvert expects the state's general fund deficit to hit $65,234,703 by the end of this biennium next August. Under the present tax set-up, he estimates revenue to the same fund during the next two years would total $180,697,245.

After the deficit is taken care of, only $115,000,000 would be left for 1960-61 spending. It's a pretty thin kitty when compared with the $282,000,000 appropriated from general revenue for 1958-59. It means the state will have to raise $167,000,000 more just to maintain its present "standard of living."

Comptroller Calvert's official revenue estimate this year is a far cry from the one he made two years ago for the 55th Legislature. In that well-heeled era Calvert forecast approximately a $50,000,000 surplus. No one paid too much attention to outgoing House Speaker Jim Lindsey's prophecy that spending needs would outrun this figure.

In good years and bad, the Legislature is bound by law to hold its appropriations within the comptroller's revenue estimate.

Treasure Hunt

A number of economies plus stricter levying and collecting of present taxes might net the state as much as $74,599,957 without new taxes.

This report was made by a financial study committee headed by Secretary of State Zollie Steakley. Committee was appointed by Gov. Price Daniel last summer.

Its six cash-raising ideas: (1) put more tax-collecting personnel in the comptroller's office, (2) cut out tax exemptions for beer and cigarettes sold on military bases, (3) increase franchise tax rate, (4) consolidate state "housekeeping" services (such as telephones), (5) increase fees charged by state agencies and (6) establish a "conservatorship" for the state to take over unclaimed money (such as bank accounts) and personal property.

Senate Investigating Committee also inquired into the comptroller's work, was told that additional personnel would make it possible to collect millions more in taxes.

Hope For Creditors

State Liquidator C. H. Langdeau reported his office is making progress toward clearing up some of the stickier problems resulting from insurance company failures.

Langdeau told the Senate Investigating Committee that if some proposed property sales go through creditors of US Trust and Guaranty will get a 10 per cent payment. They have previously received a 31 per cent payment.

Cecil Rotsch of the liquidation division told the committee that ordinary life policies of bankrupt Estate Life Ins. Co. had been reinsured and the unsound industrial policies cancelled.

In an earlier report the Senate committee had charged Insurance Commissioner William A. Harrison with negligence contributing to the downfall of Estate.

Battle Lines Drawn

Representatives of Texas Municipal League and spokesmen for the State Firemen's and Policemen's Association tried to have a friendly get-together. Purpose: to share views on future legislation on firemen's and policemen's wages, hours and pension plans.

Municipal League wanted to talk about its plan to put more control of wages and hours in the hands of city councils, rather than the Legislature. Firemen and policemen were not interested in their plan to get the Legislature to limit working hours in cities over 10,000.

After a stormy session the two groups admitted they were "poles apart."

Each gave notice they'd stick by their guns and fight it out at the Capitol.

At It Again

Texas Employment Commission, a frequent battle ground for labor-management hassles, is caught in the cross-fire again.

It was touched off at a meeting of TEC's advisory council called to consider proposed changes in the unemployment compensation laws.

Commission Chairman Perry Brown is recommending that the weekly checks be upped from $28 to $35, the 24-week pay period to 36 weeks and that there be a one-week waiting period before payments begin.

R. F. Newman, labor's representative on the Commission, recommended payments pegged at 55 per cent of the average salary. At present $78 weekly average, benefit checks would be about $43. Newman also recommended extending the unemployment law to firms with only one employee.

Labor spokesmen on the council were critical of Brown's one-week waiting period proposal and even more critical of Brown and Commissioner Maurice Acers. State AFL-CIO President Jerry Holleman accused the two commissioners of voting down the appeals of jobless workers.

Management representatives declared the commission's first responsibility was to get people employed, not to pay out benefits.

Higher Prices Seen

1959 may be the year for another round of inflation, warns the University Bureau of Business Research.

BBR noted that even with the recession there was no drop in prices during 1958. Hence, the expected expansion in business in the coming year might mean some sharp price rises.

Texas' State Park System was begun in 1923.

Texas' first railroad building charter was granted Dec. 16, 1836.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

State of the Union Message

President Eisenhower's State of the Union message to the 86th Congress on Jan. 9 was vastly similar to his last two State of the Union messages. He began it by blasting communism, which met with the approval of almost every one present except the representatives of Russia and her satellites. He then proceeded to use the communist threat as justification for the tremendous expenditures of this government. This was, of course, acknowledged by most of those listening, although many will differ with him as to the methods employed in expending tax money for defense purposes.

There is a definite feeling on the part of many Members of Congress that there is a tremendous waste in military expenditures that should be corrected at this session of Congress. The Administration will find it necessary to justify military expenditures on an economic as well as a defense basis. The general proposition that the military is an untouchable holy cow will not be recognized. It can be expected that many questions will be asked with regard to the cost of weapons. The Congress will not be satisfied with the simple statement that an atomic submarine costs $50 million and some cost three times that much, nor that certain bombers cost their weight in gold, nor that the cost of a missile on the firing range is $35 million.

What Congress wants to know is WHY. They will expect to be furnished with information as to who is collecting the prices for these weapons and whether or not the taxpayers are getting skinned in the process.

The President stated that the armed forces, the Atomic Energy Commission, and military assistance would require $47 billion in 1960. This would mean that all of the other government activities would have $30 billion. When you subtract from this $30 billion the interest that must be paid on the public debt in the amount of $8 billion, it leaves the sum of $22 billion for all activities of the federal government of the United States of America outside of the defense expenditures.

That is, all government activities and programs require an expenditure of less than one-half of the amount required for the military and associated fields. This is one of the main reasons that many Members of Congress are looking to the expenditures in the military programs in an effort to cut out waste and provide possible reductions.

The President proceeded to outline his desire for the setting up of goals to be achieved in the future to meet the growing needs and demands of this nation. He proposed for this work "a group of selfless and devoted individuals."

This is certainly an ideal with which everyone would agree, but the great difficulty throughout history has been to find that group of selfless and devoted individuals. If this could be achieved it would go a long way toward the abolition of greed, one of the greatest enemies of mankind. Let us all hope that he is eminently successful in his search for this "selfless and

Navy Officer

CHARLES E. BOLING

Ens. Boling Makes First Solo Flight

Ens. Charles E. Boling, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Boling, made his first solo flight last month at Pensacola, Fla., where he is undergoing training at the Naval Air Station.

Ensign Boling, who has attended West Texas State College here and McMurry College in Abilene, entered the flight program through the Naval Air Station in Dallas.

In addition to solo flights, he is being instructed in communications, navigation, engineering, athletics and civil air regulations.

devoted" group.

However, I do think that before a great deal of the taxpayers' money is spent on another bureau, agency, committee, or whatever you want to call it, the people should have definite proof that those comprising the organization are purely "selfless and devoted individuals." We presently have entirely too many federal boards, bureaus, and agencies of all kinds that aren't entirely controlled by "selfless and devoted individuals."

There are many other items mentioned in the President's message, but space will not permit me to touch on each of them. However, there was one incident that merits special mention. It was the only time that the President engaged in ad-libbing during his speech.

His speech contained these words: "I shall recommend to the Congress that the Chief Executive be given the responsibility either to approve or to veto specific items in appropriations and authorization bills." The President's face then broke into a broad grin because he well knew that the grins on the faces of the Members of Congress evidenced what was in their minds.

The President then said, and he was correct, "I realize that this power has been sought every year for a long time, but has never been granted the Chief Executive." There was laughter in the Chamber because the Members well knew the past history of this request.

To vest in the Chief Executive of this country the right to veto any item in an appropriations bill would be to vest in the Chief Executive powers he was not intended to have under the Constitution. It is true that if such a right was properly and discreetly exercised it would not do harm, but if it was misused it could do tremendous damage to the entire country and every section of it. It would constitute an unlimited power, which our form of government does not contemplate be vested in one individual.

Mrs. Eisenhower, Mrs. Nixon, and many of the Cabinet wives were in the presidential box in the gallery.

JWBC Studies Home Decorating

An international flavor in home furnishings was the program at the Jan. 9 meeting of the Junior Woman's Book Club in the film room of the West Texas State College Library.

The group also saw a film on crippling diseases and elected officers.

Mrs. Bob Bellah read the commentary on "World of Ideas," a home decorating travelogue. The 55 color slides, which included 35 room settings, showed how ancient customs, architecture and colors of Denmark, Spain, Austria and several Asian countries have been translated into American fabrics and furnishings.

Mrs. Edwin Kuehn presented a film, "Mercy of Hands," which showed many crippling diseases afflicting people today. Mrs. Kuehn gave a brief talk on how much money is needed by the March of Dimes to fight these diseases.

The club voted to offer their services to the Canyon Jayettes for the Mother's March, set tentatively for Jan. 29.

New officers elected were Mrs. Ellsworth Barnard, president; Mrs. Michael Morris, vice president; Mrs. Richmond Hales, secretary; Mrs. Alfred Daniel, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bob Black, treasurer; Mrs. Bill Cherry, reporter-historian; and Sarah Thompson, program chairman.

Members of the nominating committee were Mrs. Duane Howard and Mrs. Carroll Meek.

Mrs. Bruce Winn gave a fine arts report on picture arrangements to the 25 members present.

Alvy King Wins History Award

The first West Texas State College student to be awarded the Sheffy-Anderson scholarship, is Alvy L. (Mickey) King, a senior from Canyon.

King is a history major who expects to complete work on his B.S. degree in May.

The scholarship, with the WT Ex-Student Association as trustee, was started in the spring of 1958 to honor Dr. L. F. Sheffy and Dr. Hattie M. Anderson, both long-time history professors at West Texas State. The two retired during the summer of 1957.

The late Miss Una M. Brooks, Amarillo teacher, was chairman of a fund-raising campaign for the scholarship, and after her death, Miss Wilma Hixson of Canyon, also a teacher in Amarillo, became chairman.

More than $2,000 contributed by ex-students and friends has been raised for the scholarship fund, and interest from investment of the money will be used for the scholarship.

According to Milton (Buff) Morris, executive secretary of the Ex-Student Association, a similar fund for a Una M. Brooks scholarship, has raised about $1,000.

Major factor in selecting a winner for the Sheffy-Anderson scholarship is scholastic record in both history and an over-all average of college work. Winner is chosen by the WT history department, and a board of five administers the scholarship.

Members of the board are Dr. Anderson, Dr. Sheffy, Miss Hixson, Dr. Ima Barlow, professor of history, and Dr. Lowell Harrison, head of the WT history department.

If you think women never do anything on time, you've never gone shopping with them.

For one who never knows what she wants, today's woman is quite apt at getting it.

We know a woman to whom human relations is an art.

She performs many thoughtful deeds, each attuned to a particular person. Her sympathy is boundless, and she projects quickly into another's joys or sorrows.

She has an unerring eye for beauty, whether in clothes, home furnishings, foods, books or character. And for her, to enjoy is to share.

Not long ago she glanced through a home magazine and found its theme especially pleasing. It was on awareness of the beauty around us, as the key to whether we're 'dead or alive.' She absorbed it eagerly — such lovely pictures of everyday objects; such a sound viewpoint! She hoped Jane, and Mary, and Alice had seen it. She dressed and went out hunting, to all the magazine stands in town, gathering up copies. These she left in doorways, with a message: "I liked this so much I want you to see it."

If someone telephones for a recipe, she may appear the next day carrying the dish already prepared to serve.

How does she have the time? And the money? Well, for her, making people happy is both a philosophy and a hobby. She doesn't care for clubs, civic work, games, or many of the other time-consuming activities that clutter women's lives. Her family is grown, though they live in town and she sees them often. Her principal activity is her church, which she loves and works in. When a friend comes through a bad experience, she says confidently, "I was praying for you," and makes it mean something.

Her generosity certainly goes beyond the call of friendship. But it probably costs no more than such interests as hunting, golf, or needlecraft. It's the outgoing quality of her hobby that makes it true art in human relations.

All orders must be in by March 1.

Bribery - -

was later enlarged by our questioning of many other persons connected with the case. We talked to more than 30 persons in all.

"Some of these persons we met in the middle of the night, at pre-arranged places.

"The details of the conspiracy to bribe the juror will be revealed when the men indicted today come to trial.

"In the view of the grand jury, the evidence was sufficient to warrant the indictments on the grounds that an involved conspiracy had taken place."

The alleged bribery attempt was first brought to light in a report in open court on the morning of Oct. 27, when the 47th District Court convened to hear the trial of Nick Bargas, charged with murder.

Donald Heard and his brother, Hubert Carlton Heard, testified at that time about an attempt to bribe Donald Heard by West in order to influence Donald Heard's verdict should he become a juror in the trial.

West was reported to have approached Hubert Heard on Oct. 25 and offered money if he would influence his brother, Donald, in helping Bargas provided Donald became a member of the jury.

On that evening, Judge E. E. Jordan ordered the trial of Bargas continued until the January term of court. Judge Stevens had been appointed as defense attorney for Bargas.

Bargas is being held in Potter

County jail without bond.

West was subsequently indicted for attempted bribery, and was released on bond. (Dist. Atty. Bagley said Friday he did not know where West is at present, but that his bond is returnable on Jan. 26 when the docket will be called in 47th District Court for the January term.)

from his office one of the civil patrolmen and Ed Brannon, of the Department of Public Safety, and Wayne Bagley, the district attorney, and some city police officers.

"At that time I interrogated Mr. Brannon and Mr. Bagley in reference to obtaining the key from Mr. Miller, which they readily admitted. They denied any intent of going into Judge Stevens' office.

"Brannon said they requested the key to test the credibility of Miller.

"Whether this is correct or not, I do not know.

"I don't know what I should say, except that some two weeks before a similar effort was made to enter this particular building.

"On Tuesday morning of this week another appointment was asked for by Judge Stevens at my office and he arrived about 11 o'clock, again with Mr. Miller.

"And I was informed by Miller that he was picked up by Mr. Brannon as he was entering his home about 11 p. m. Monday and was taken on a dirt road just west and south of the helium plant west of Amarillo. Miller stated to me he was pummelled in the stomach by the other investigative officer that was accompanying Brannon.

"Because he is an airman, I advised him to go to his commanding officer, the OSI (Office of Special Investigations) or the legal office at Amarillo Air Force Base.

"It is my understanding that some effort was made to have him (Miller) removed from the base by the state officers for further investigation, although he is married and lives in Amarillo.

"The base suggested that he remain on the base Tuesday night to avoid any further molestation. "Of course, the statements made to me by Miller have not been corroborated by the state officers, but the location near the helium plant was inspected by Judge Stevens or for Judge Stevens, and it is my information that there is evidence corroborating Mr. Miller's statement.

"The obtaining of the key was instigated by Brannon and Bagley, according to Miller's statement to me.

"It would seem rather strange if I, as attorney for Judge Stevens, would not take proper steps to avoid interference with his office, and, if an unlawful entry was contemplated, whether by officials or not, to prevent it.

"This is particularly true considering that Judge Stevens informed me that at least two weeks before the incident he informed Brannon he could make a complete search of his office and files as long as he kept the records intact. "Brannon didn't accept the invitation."

Peace Officers Sponsor Drive To Build Boys Ranch Housing

Construction of a cottage-type dormitory at Boys Ranch is the 1959 project for the United Peace Officers of America.

The project was approved last week at a meeting of the board of directors of the organization, according to Sheriff Day Thompson of Vega, president. The new dormitory will be designed for boys in the four to eight year age bracket.

In the new building, eight of these smaller youngsters will live with a man and his wife. The house mother will prepare all meals and the entire surroundings will be as nearly like a real home as possible, and there will always be a houseparent on hand to look after the little fellows.

At the present time, 17 boys below eight years are living in the Old Tascosa courthouse. Most of the small boys came to the ranch along with older brothers so that the brothers would not have to be separated, and in some cases, to remove the little fellows from

In 1955, the UPOA was organized to assist Boys Ranch in a building program. The first project was the Boys Ranch Independent School, and since that time the group—composed of police officers, sheriffs, highway patrolmen, rangers and FBI men from all over the US and Canada—has helped with raising funds for the new dining hall.

The Boys Ranch school building is dedicated to the members of UPOA.

Exchange Student, Hereford Panel Present FHA Program on Education

An exchange student from Roy, France, and a guest panel from Hereford presented a Future Home-maker of America program on European education Jan. 6 at Canyon High School.

The exchange student is Joelle Pillier Laroche, who is attending Hereford High School and is staying in the home of Elmer Patterson. She and the panel were questioned by a panel from Canyon.

Those that lose out must go to vocational schools.

Members of the Hereford panel were Mrs. Deward Roberson, Mrs. Roy Pruitt, Mrs. Laroche, Sandra Roberson, Royce Lee Pruitt, Merry Key Pruitt, Betty Hagar, Bonnie Wagner, Sheryl Patterson and Miss Laroche. Mrs. Laroche was visiting her daughter during the holidays.

On the Canyon panel were Dolores Wagner, W. M. Stoker, Patricia Haley, Nancy Cleavinger, Jeanie Coombs, Judy Taylor, Mayla Atkinson, Loyd Triplett and J. E. Miller.

and Nancy Cleavinger as the sophomore candidates. Other Charm Queen candidates were Judy Taylor, Suzanne Lemons and Mayla Atkinson.

Are you getting ready to plant a farmstead windbreak this spring? If you turn your order in early to the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation district supervisors, you can obtain potted Arizona Cypress for 25 cents each. The district cannot order less than 50 or more than 500 trees, so get your order in now. The trees can be picked up

On these larger trees, the order cannot be less than 10 or more than 250 — the trees can be picked up at the Kress Nursery on Feb. 1.

The nursery also has pyracantha in one-gallon buckets at $1.50 each. Contact the Soil Conservation Service for recommendations on spacing the trees in a windbreak and the distance the windbreak should be planted from the area to be protected.

2 CHS Students Enter Contest

Sondra Hines and John Menke, both seniors at Canyon High School, have entered the Westinghouse Science Talent Search, sponsored annually by the Westinghouse Electric Corporation and the Science Service.

Most important objective of the Science Talent Search is to encourage young men and women to enter science or engineering fields for a career.

All participants must complete three parts of an application. First part is a science aptitude examination, which tests ability to apply information rather than general knowledge. The second phase is a personal data sheet supplying information about the student, with recommendations from teacher and principal. Last step is a 1,000 word theme about the student's individual project.

Sondra submitted a paper on "The Search for and Isolation of an Antibiotic from the Soil." John submitted the project, "The Rebuilding of an Electric Motor." The top 40 winners will be given free trips to Washington, D. C., and five of these will be given scholarships amounting to $25,000. Those receiving honorable mention will be recommended for other valuable prizes and scholarships.

Brahms and Brubeck... an unlikely combination? Not to the man who recognizes the "best of its kind," be it arpeggios or appliances. That's why he insisted on a new GAS Clothes Dryer for his wife. He sees the advantages of instant heat (turn it on and it's on), and no heat hang-over (gas off, heat's gone!). He's observed how gentle Gas heat blows moisture away instead of baking it out. Clothes come out fluffier, more wrinkle-free and easier to iron! They last longer, too. Yes, in every way—economy included—GAS gives you more. And where the finest is truly appreciated... Gas belongs!
